INTERNET POSTING PERMISSION SLIP

Dear Parents,

As you know, Mars Academy is on the internet at www.MarsAcademy.org.

Hopefully you have found our website easy to navigate and find any information you need.

We do update the website periodically. Some of the updates include posting photographs of Mars Academy and even posting some student work.

Your child's safety, though, is a top priority to us. We do not, therefore, believe in posting students' names anywhere on the website.

We will not even post your child's work or pictures without your permission. Thus, we are asking you to consider completing this form and giving us permission to make such posts.

Thank you.
